

Hello!

The school year continues apace and some of your students will be preparing for exams. With this in mind, we are offering a free webinar on how character can help them to cope with exam stress. We are also excited to have updated our secondary school assemblies to include contemporary role models, which makes them even more engaging for the age group. Enjoy one for free below.

New Blog: Children's Mental Health Week

Our new blog reviews two events held recently. We participated in two amazing webinars. The first was a panel of wellbeing researchers and experts discussing how to promote wellbeing in young people. The second was another exciting collaboration with Virtual Soccer Schools, which enabled students to engage directly with two Premier League/US team players to discuss the importance of using our voice and supporting our own mental health.

2024 WLF Youth Ambassador Program

We support the great work that the World Literacy Foundation does and would like to alert our network to their upcoming round of applications for their 2024 WLF Youth Ambassador Program, opening on 1 April. Being a Youth Ambassador involves using your voice to support those in vulnerable situations and communities, and requires you to develop key leadership and advocacy skills – an area where Amazing People Schools can support all students in building key character strengths.
