

Hello!

A big welcome to you - we hope you enjoy reading about our latest updates.

This edition of our newsletter features forthcoming events and a free resource for Chinese New Year. Find out how one school ran an Amazing People Day and inspired their children to talk about how their favourite role models used their character strengths.

Don't Miss

Talk to Premier League Footballers!

9 February 2024, 9.30am

We're excited to announce the date of our next virtual event where your class will get the chance to speak with Premier League footballers, and learn all about what skills and attitudes they feel are important and why.

Pupils can ask the footballers questions in real time, which will not only help to inspire and motivate pupils, but will also teach them about important life skills and character-building strengths.

It's a fantastic opportunity, not to be missed! Open to all - you don't need to be a customer to take part!

Promoting Positive Student Wellbeing

A Panel Discussion

7 February 2024, 4pm

This Children's Mental Health Week, we will be discussing how teachers and parents can help promote positive student wellbeing by empowering students to know that their voice matters.

Learn how to empower your students to express themselves, to better understand and measure their wellbeing, and to know what support you can offer during particularly stressful times such as exams.

A panel of experts, including Selena, will be discussing these questions during this free event hosted by Cambridge CEM.

New Blog: An Amazing People Day

Read how Frodsham Primary held an Amazing People Day, where they celebrated those who inspired them by learning about and dressing up as their role models - historical personalities, celebrities and people known to them. The focus was on understanding their character strengths, and involved the participation of parents and the wider community.
